

Social Contract

Gaona, Adan

Per#4

8/21/25

McD. English

I think that the social contract is important because it reminds everyone that on the first days of school we all wrote the social contract together. For example, everyone signed the contract so for those who signed it they have to respect and obey the contract. And lastly, it's helpful to the class that the social contract is for them to bond with classmates. However, the social contract is never agreed by few people so they teach them how it can help them.